New York, N. Y. April 21.—Trading was perfunctory teday through the morning and fluctuations were restricted to unusually narrow limits.

Wall street regarded the intention of the government to intervene in the railroad rate eases before the supreme court as promising another indefinite delay before final settlement of the important issues involved. The prospect was discouraging to speculators who had been hoping for an early decision, and business fell off to midsummer proportions.

proportions.

Foreign dealings thraw little light on the course of prices, speculation abroad being ascribed to measures to conserve resources pending adjustment of political and financial conditions.

coint and Reading and Steel nearly all point and Reading and Steel nearly all much.

Consent by the court to the time extension saked for carrying out the Harriman dissolution plan furnished more ammunition for the buils, who promptly raised the whole list to a still higher range. Union Pacific, Reading and Amalgamated improved two points, while Steel, Smelting. Northern Pacific and other standard stocks rose a point or more.

Business grew larger and dealings more varied when the market began to show some evidence of strength. Can, Chesapeake and Ohio and some of the higher priced industrials were sought freely.
